CLAIMED NOW AS SIX MILLION MEN FRENCH VICTORY ENGAGED IN EAST

Although Paris Official Statement Says There is No Change Jubilation is Apparent.

WANT NO PREMATURE CLAIMS

High Officials Asserts he Knows Germans Are Retiring Very Rapidly at Some Points.

NO WORD ON WAR SITUATION.

(By United Press.)
London, Oct. 1.—Despite noticeable optimism of high officials of the war office, not a single word was obtainable today regarding the general war situation. No word had been received from General French and he "probably was too busy just at present to communicate." But the unofficial reports all indicated the belief that the Germans are again retreating in France

(By United Press.)
Paris, Oct. 1.—Supreme confidence prevailed at military headquarters today. The battle of the Aisne is already claimed as a sweeping French victory. There was no disguising the jubilation among the members of General Gallieni's staff. But there is still no deviation in the official statement, which declares "there is no change."

The same announcement states "the French left progresses north of the Somme and we also make progress in the Woevre region." In explaining, However, it is pointed out that the French war office has already announced that it will not be put in the position of making premature announcement of victories.

"Not until we are actually holding the entire German line will we fully claim a complete victory," declared one of the highest officials on duty here to the assembled newspaper representatives. "Personally we are confident. We know that the Germans are retiring very rapidly at some points and that they have forced to fight with desperation to prevent their extreme right from being completely routed. But that does not yet justify an official claim of a sweeping victory. So long as the Germans hold the lines along the Aisne and their center remains unchanged, so long will there be danger that they may yet turn the tables. But every day of our success at both ends of the lone battle lines means much and unless I am greatly surprised, you will see an entirely new alignment by the first days of next week."

In a final effort to turn both wings of the German army which is now slowly retreating both on the left and the right, reinforcements are being rushed east and west by the French military staff. There has been no

Four Gigantic Battles and Two Fort Bombardments Are in Progress Between Several Armies.

NO DECISIVE RESULT SEEN

One German Army is Attempting to Cross River Nieman and is Resisted by Large Force.

(By United Press.)
Vienna, Via Rome, Oct. 17.—Four gigantic battles and two fort bombardments, involving fully six million men, are in progress in the eastern theatre of war today. At no point has there been any decisive result and it will be several days before the fighting will reach a crisis.

General Rennenkamps with one million Russian first line troops, is endeavoring to resist the efforts of General Von Hindenberg's army to cross the Nieman river between Druskeniri and Grodno. The fighting along this line is of the most severe character. Up to the present it has been impossible for the Germans to break through.

Another German army is engaged with 500,000 Russians in the big pine forest of Augustowo, which is 24 miles long and 35 miles broad and is filled with small lakes and a canal that connects the Nieman and Vistula. This German army was driven from the village of Augustowo and is now being used to protect Hindenberg's flank and rear.

The great Russian central army, under the direct command of the commander-in-chief Grand Duke Nicholas, is made up of one million fresh troops who have been mobilized in Russian Poland to move against the main German army which has been feverishly fortifying the entire line of the Silesian frontier. This force was today reported in contact with the German advance guard which has been pushed forward to protect the lines of communication to Cracow. This fight, now little more than a skirmish, is expected to develop into the greatest battle of the war in the east as the German troops engaged are those who were withdrawn from the west to try to stop the Prussian advance.

Meanwhile there are between a million and a million and a half Russians in Galicia moving in two parallel lines. The Northern column, which has enveloped Przemyśl today had completed the investment of Tarnow, fifty miles east of Cracow. The fall of Tarnow is feared here as the Russians far outnumber the Austrian garrison and there exists no good strategic reason for trying to hold the city, as the troops that would be needed there will be of far greater value in Cracow. The second Galician army, traversing the Southern line and over owing to the passes of the Carpathian mountains, captured Krosnow after a desperate fight, during which the Austrian garrison inflicted enormous losses on the Russians.

The combined German-Austrian armies in the theatre of war do not number two millions, including all reserves, while the Russians have more than 4,000,000 already on the scene. Yet at no point have the Russians scored a distinct victory, since the opening of the battles. In the North the fighting is entirely in German territory while in the south, in Galicia, the Austrians have withdrawn toward Cracow for strategic reasons.

An official statement issued here says that the entire situation is "satisfactory," that the garrison at Przemyśl maintains its advantage

COUNTRY HOME OF J.D. STEWART BURNS

Catches Fire From Some Unknown Cause Late Wednesday Afternoon and is Soon Destroyed.

NO ONE AT HOME AT THE TIME

The country residence of John D. Stewart, south of New Salem, was destroyed by fire late yesterday afternoon. The loss is not known but is partly covered with insurance. Mr. Stewart had $800 on the household goods and house. There was no one at home at the time the blaze was discovered and the origin is now unknown. The house was a large one and the loss will be quite heavy.

Mr. Stewart was at work in the field and Mrs. Stewart was on her way to this city. The blaze was discovered by Mrs. Clem Grnell, who lives across the road. At the time the blaze was confined to the second story and under the roof. The fire had gained such headway that it was impossible to fight the flames and only a small amount of the furniture down stairs was saved. There had been no fire in the house for several days, except in the kitchen, and Mr. Stewart is at a loss to know how it started, but has advanced the theory that it might have been caused by mice igniting matches.

J. H. Brecheisen and Luther Land of this city were passing just as the fire was discovered. They were the first ones in the house and assisted in carrying out most of the furniture saved. They were on their way home from Neff's Corner in Haydon's hardware store delivery auto truck. Mrs. Stewart was reached at New Salem by telephone and returned home.

END OF DAMAGE CASE IN SIGHT

T. H. I. & E! Counsel Springs Surprise by Announcing it Will Introduce no Evidence..

IN SUIT FILED BY S. H. MURPHY

This Action Follows Overruling of Motion to Instruct Jury to Find For the Defense.

The closing argument in the damage suit of Samuel H. Murphy against the Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Eastern Traction company started this afternoon and the case will probably go to the jury late today or early in the morning. The case has been long drawn out and hard fought. It started Monday morning and the plaintiff's side of the case was completed yesterday afternoon late.

A peculiar turn of events is all that makes possible the deciding of the case even at this time. Following the announcement that the plaintiff had completed the testimony, the defendant filed a motion asking the court to instruct the jury to return a verdict for the traction company. Argument on this motion occupied all this morning and was finally overruled by Judge Megee.

Then the big surprise of the case came with the announcement that the defendant company would introduce no testimony and the final arrangement was started. The defendant evidently believes that the plaintiff has made no case because this proceeding is unusual in such an important case and where the demand for damages is as large as in this one. The demand is $11,200. The defendant company from all indications is confident of its ground.

The defendant alleges that the plaintiff did not use reasonable care in approaching the crossing in Straughin where the accident occurred in which Murphy was injured. It was maintained that under the law the plaintiff should have used care in approaching the crossing in the automobile and the defense alleged that, according to his own testimony, he did not look to the east along the track until forty-two feet of it and then believed he could get across the track in time to avoid being hit.

Under these circumstances the traction company held that it was not liable for damages sustained by Murphy as he did not use sufficient care. Because the defendant did not believe a case for damage had been made it was submitted to the jury without introducing evidence. The argument was expected to be very long.

TRIAL POSTPONED.

The trial of Gibson Ross, charged with speeding, scheduled for Wednesday night in police court was postponed because the attorney for Ross was not ready for trial. No time has now been set for hearing the case.

WILSON ENDORSES SHIVELY.

(By United Press.)
Washington, Oct. 1.—President Wilson today wrote a letter to Senator Shively for re-election in Indiana. He declared himself quite "genuinely surprised" that any question should have been raised as to whether he wanted Shively returned. He complimented the Indiana delegation because he declared it had always stood by the administration with "unfailing generosity."

WHAT INCREASE COSTS IN RUSH

Taxpayers Have to Pay $17,341.28 More Taxes Because of Raised State Tax Levy!

EIGHT AND A FOURTH CENTS

Figures Are Compiled From State Auditor's Report of Property Valuations in Counties.

In an effort to minimize the importance of the action of the last state legislature when it raised the state tax levy eight and a fourth cents, the Democratic press of Indiana has been referring to increase in the tax levy as "slight."

When it is considered at its true worth, the records show that the rise is anything but "slight." Republican campaign managers everywhere have shown to the taxpayers the importance of this increase and what it means to each county in Indiana.

With this end in view, figures have been compiled, based on the state auditor's report of property valuations in the ninety-two counties in the state.

For instance, here in Rush county, the total valuation of property on which taxes will be paid, is $21,019,745. Figuring the increase alone which will have to be paid because of the increased tax levy of eight and a fourth cents, Rush county will pay just $17,341.28 more taxes than last year. It is not hard to figure. The tax levy rise is eight and a fourth cents on each one hundred dollars worth of taxable property.

Of course, the same thing holds true in the same ratio in other counties of the state. Neighboring counties are hit as hard as Rush county. Down in Bartholomew county the taxpayers will have to pay $16,894.80 more than they did last year. Then there is Decatur county where the taxpayers will have to pay $13,789.84 more money in taxes this year than last.

In Fayette county the assessed valuation is not near so great as in Rush county, with the result that their increase will be $10,546.58. The increased tax levy will cost Hancock county, $15,703.57. In Henry county the additional taxes to be paid amount to $20,393.97. In Shelby county the increase will amount to $19,303.94, according to the figures just made public. The increase in Union county amounts to $5,402.59. The taxpayers of Wayne county will have to pay $28,328.61 by reason of the increased tax rate.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Howard Steele and Jennie Hendrix.

But many an inferior article is sold for twice its worth. This is especially so in vehicles. Very few dealers sell buggies at one price to all. We do and everybody pays the same. That is the reason our buggies are lower priced than our competitors. We have but one price and it has to be low enough to impress our customers and get the business. We want you to see our storm buggies. They are the best that can be bought and we believe we have the only door that can not and will not rattle. You can not find a better storm buggy with a better reputation for road service or a finer looking one than we have but you can find higher priced ones that simply mean more profit tacked on. Be guided by these facts rather than led by false hopes and when you get ready for a storm buggy we want to show you the best line you ever looked at and at a price that represents value received. $210,000 IN TAXES TO BE COLLECTED

There Remains But One Month For Rush County Taxpayers to Pay Fall Installment.

EARLY COLLECTIONS SLOW

With only one month remaining in which to pay the fall installment of taxes there remains approximately $210,000 to be collected by County Treasurer McBride. Business is expected to pick up in the treasurer's office with the usual tax rush but naturally there are those who wait until the last minute to pay their taxes. The last day is the first Monday in November, which is November 2.

There has been a very small amount collected in advance payments by the county treasurer. From May until September 25, when he made his last settlement with the state, Mr. McBride collected only a little over $11,000. He gives as a reason for the small number of advance payments of taxes a lack of trades and sales in real estate at this time of year. In the spring of the year the advance payment of taxes is always stimulated by this. Mr. McBride expects a busy time within a week. Sylvester Kirkpatrick is helping in the treasurer's office.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

Why not now?

Down to Dollars and Cents.

The government of Indiana last year, under Democratic rule, cost $185 an hour more than it did under the last Republican administration.

Three dollars a minute—each minute in the day and each day in the year—more under Democratic rule than under Republican rule!

Mr. Taxpayer, do you think this good business?

A New Slogan.

Voters in Ft. Wayne have coined a new slogan for the Republican party in the present campaign, the battle cry being "Safety First Vote the Republican ticket." Another slogan that is finding immense popularity among men here who voted for Wilson two years ago and who are now out of work is "I love my party, but oh, You Job!"

The manner in which these slogans are taking the people by storm was shown in a recent Republican rally held in this city.

Making Good Impression.

That Hugh Th. Miller, of Columbus, Republican nominee for United States senator, a business man, clean cut and able, is making a splendid impression in his canvass of the state is shown by the favorable comment aroused in the cities where he has spoken thus early in the campaign. The good impression he is making is reflected in the numerous favorable reports of his meetings in the press, both Republican, independent, Progressive and Democratic, and the favorable impression he has made on the crowds who have flocked to hear him speak.

A most recent example is an article appearing in the South Bend Tribune, one of the most influential papers in the state, relative to Mr. Miller's visit to that city.

Even the most begrudging opponent of Republicanism cannot gainsay the fact that a surprising amount of interest and enthusiasm was shown at the luncheon and reception held in the Oliver hotel last night in honor of Hon. Hugh Th. Miller, of Columbus, Ind., nominee for United States senator.

Mr. Miller, in whose honor the luncheon was given, cannot be classed as an orator. He is, however, a most pleasing speaker. Using the conversational tone it seemed as if he were alone in a room with each man and was talking to him only. What he said was convincing. The way he said it was persuasive. The average man is carried away with oratory, but when he returns to his shop, his office his bench or his store what was said fades from his mind. What Hugh Th. Miller said last night will remain in the thoughts of his audience for a long time.

There is nothing of the egotist in Hugh Th. Miller. Nor is he a demagogue. On the contrary there is about him something which before he begins speaking inspires confidence and trust. He is quite a change from the usual campaigner. There is no bluff or bluster about him. He is a good mixer and he wears well. He made no extravagant statements to catch the passing fancy of a crowd. His words showed he had thought out what he wanted to say and he said what he thought without giving offense to anyone and carried conviction.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

The Republican committeemen and candidates will meet at Republican headquarters Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

OUR CIRCULATION.

The Daily Republican today publishes its semi-annual paid circulation statement required by the federal government, on page 1. The statement, which shows a daily paid circulation for the last six months of 1,730, reveals that the Daily Republican's circulation is more staple than flour or sugar these days. The Republican still has a larger average daily paid circulation than the average daily paid circulations of all other Rushville newspapers combined.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and glossy at once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

"Heckles" While he Talks.

FINDS OPPOSITION STRONG

Mule at Orange County Meeting, Realizing he is Among Friends,

Brays in Approved Style.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 1.—About three weeks ago Albert J. Beveridge, chronic office seeker, began his regular biennial tour of the state in his search for popular support and abusing every individual and every influence that is opposed to him. Beveridge already has found the opposition to him is stronger, more determined and better organized than it has ever been before. His audiences have been small and undemonstrative, in sharp contrast to his audiences of former years. The attendance has been made up largely of organization Democrats who are doing everything in their power to keep some semblance of life in the movement at least during this campaign.

There is one feature of the Beveridge meetings that is looked upon as highly significant. His auditors are "heckling" him unmercifully. His hearers are not a bit backward about asking him questions and, as usual, he is peevish or insulting when he deigns to attempt to answer the highly embarrassing queries.

In almost every one of his meetings to date some one has asked "How about Maine?" Why did the Progressive vote drop off 65 per cent from the 1912 vote? If Beveridge has answered this question, no one has ever heard of it.

Beveridge, as usual, devotes a large part of his speeches to denunciation of "bosses" and "politicians."

"We are governed by politicians for their own interest and not the people's interest?" he said in a recent speech at West Baden.

"Aren't you a politician?" asked a ruddy-faced man in the crowd. "Aren't you always running for office?"

In reply Beveridge stammered something to the effect that he did not seek the nomination for Senator this year and indicated that if he had not taken it the Progressive party would have gone to pieces then and there.

A Democrat in another audience shouted. "Where would we be if we had Teddy now?"

Another demanded to know, while Beveridge was discussing the initiative and referendum, how he had stood on that question while in Congress.

At one of Beveridge's meetings in Orange county, close to Tom Taggart's famous institution, organization Democrats turned out in force as they are doing at every place he appears. Not only were the Democrats present but a long eared mule, the Democratic animal, was stationed along the fringe of the crowd. After Beveridge had talked away along at his usual speed for some time the mule brayed in approved style, realizing, no doubt, that he was among friends.

Important to All Women
Readers of This Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and maybe despondent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Rineham, N. Y., may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. ROOSEVELT DENIED A CHANGE OF VENUE

Justice Chester Says He Can Get

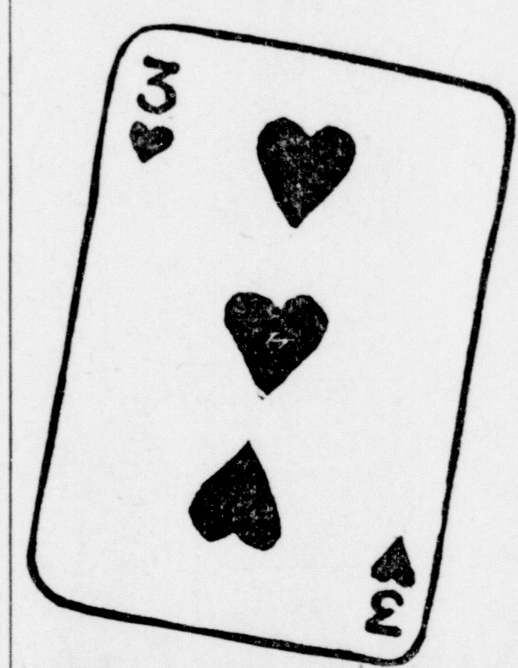

Impartial Trial in Case Brought

By William Barnes

LIBEL SUIT FOR $50,000

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Justice Chester today denied the motion of Colonel Roosevelt for a change in the place of trial of William Barnes' libel suit for $50,000 against him. In applying for a change of venue the ex-president attributed an all-powerful influence to the former Republican state chairman in this, Barnes' home county. He alleged this would tend to prevent a fair trial of the case here.

Justice Chester, deciding that not a political issue but a personal issue was involved in the suit, declared his confidence in the holding of an impartial trial in Albany county.

GILMORE WILL BE LEFT IN COLD

Not Expected Organized Ball Will Recognize Him in Case War is Settled This Winter

SETTLEMENT IS EXPECTED

Federal League Has Lost Money Mainly Because of Large List of Players Carried

BY HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)
New York, Oct. 1.—Will this winter see the end of the baseball war? Many men high in baseball—men close to the ones who dictate in both the American and National leagues—say that it will.
Just how the windup of this conflict will be brought about, though, is a much mooted question. Out of Use "Gets-It," Corns Shriveled, Vanish!

It's the New Way, and You'll Forge You Ever Had Corns.

No Corns to Bump; No Pain, If You Use "GETS-IT."

never fails. That's why millions of people are using "GETS-IT" today and throwing away their fancy plasters, sticky tape, toe-cutting knives, and "wrapping outfits" that make a bundle around the toe and choke it into pain by pressing either on or around the corn. There is nothing to stick to your stocking, nothing to cause inflammation or rashes, nothing to press on or around the corn. You apply it in 2 seconds. No more knives, razors, scissors or files, with their blood-poison dangers. Try "GETS-IT" for that corn, callus, wart or bunion.
"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.
"Gets-It" is sold in Rushville by Thos. W. Lytle, Hargrove & Mullin and F. E. Wolcott.

the many opinions advanced by the one supposed to know, one fact stands out very prominently. That is that when the time for settlement comes—when Organized Baseball opens its arms and takes the young Federal league into them with a kiss of forgiveness—a person by the name of James Gilmore won't be among those present.

This Gilmore person who has really made the Federal league, has incurred the everlasting enmity of the powers that be in the organized baseball fold. These persons have made it emphatically plain that if they ever do consent to a peace parley with the Federals that Gilmore will not be admitted to it. And their one demand that they insist upon to the end—the bitter end—will be the elimination of Gilmore from the spotlight.

To one in the bleachers this doesn't look very good. If the Federal league club owners stand for this they won't be showing much of a sportmanlike spirit. And, judging by past performances, they are liable to give Gilmore the gate if by so doing they can land in the select circle themselves.

To illustrate, we will recite the case of one James Powers—the real father of the Federal league. He has dropped out of sight completely, it seems, and still it was only by his diligent work that the league really opened its first season. And he was handed his passports before the end of that season.

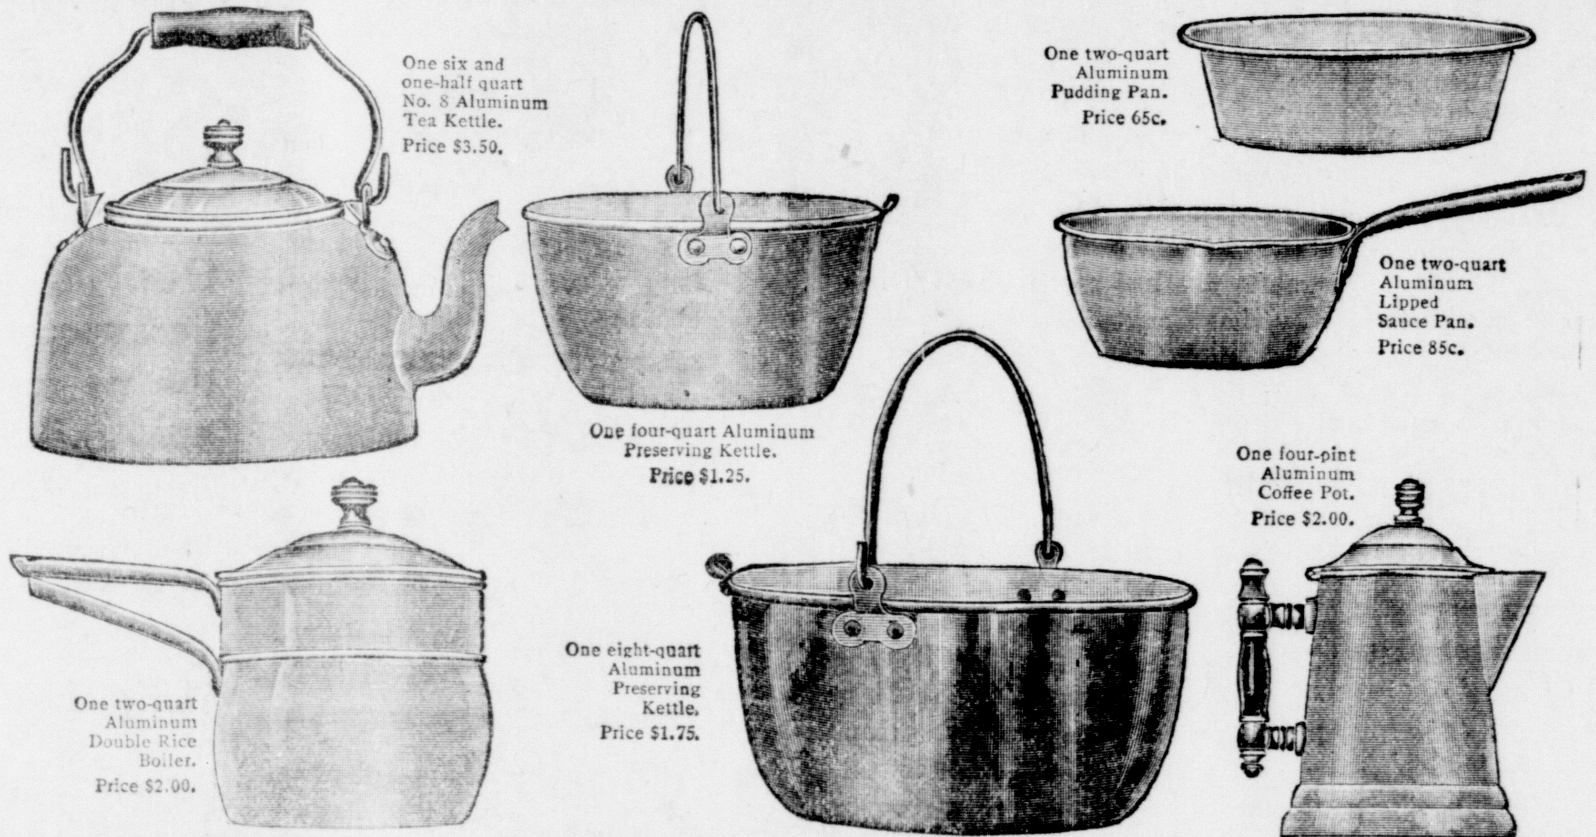

The league directors excused their action in decorating him with the Ancient Order of the Tin Can by saying that they had discovered that he was not a good executive. He was too much of a dreamer, they said.

Grant all this, and yet Powers was not treated with fairness. In recognition of what he had done for the league, the league should have taken care of him in some manner.

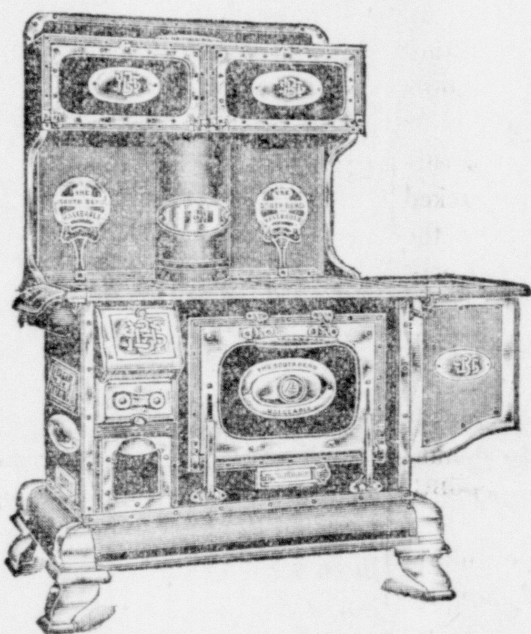

Powers long had had the "bug" of organizing a third major league. His maiden effort in that line was pulled in 1912, when he tried to put the Columbian league over. That lasted—in a way—almost a season. It was a very sorry spectacle while it lasted as an imitation of a major league but it served one purpose—it implanted the germ of a third major league in the minds of several wealthy men.

The next year found Powers on the job again and by that time he had lined up a representative set of men as backers. At Indianapolis, in the spring of 1913, Powers put through the organization of the Federal Baseball league of the United States. That was the birth of the Federal league of today.

This has been recited just to show what Powers did for the Federal league. We told you what the Federal league did to Powers—lost him in the shuffle. And now we wonder will they do Jim Gilmore the same way if Organized Baseball insists upon it as one of the terms of settlement?

The Federal league will have to effect some kind of a settlement if it hopes to stay out of the bankruptcy courts. The main reason for this is that the league is carrying enough ball players—or men and boys posing as such—to supply three or four leagues.

Not having minor Federal league, where it can send players that it does not need, the Federal league has to keep on its payroll all youngsters who fail to make good or old timers who are slipping. The reason they don't dare to let any of these go outright is plain. If they did they would scare away stars whom they hope to lure from the American and National leagues. These athletes wouldn't hop to the Feds if they feared they would be set free with no where to go if they started to go badly.

Each team in the Fed league has from thirty to forty players. As twenty-five is the maximum carried by any club during its regular playing season it can be seen easily that the Feds are totting an enormous expense account.

The Feds have taken in at the gate enough money to break even under ordinary conditions. But with the added expense of a vast number of players not needed, the league probably will have a good sized deficit as a whole.

There Are Many Reasons

why so many women are going to Casady's to buy their tailored suits, coats, skirts and furs. Prominent among the reasons are:

FIRST: We are making lower prices on high grade merchandise than have ever been made by any store in Rushville.

SECOND: You know that we have no old merchandise from last season to show you and work off. Every garment we show you is strictly new.

THIRD: You know the general character of our garments as to style, workmanship, graceful lines, fine materials and beautiful finish are actually superior to anything you have seen elsewhere.

Discerning Women are Quick to Recognize true merit in tailoring and fabric and are keen to note the distinguishing "air" which characterizes our garments. It doesn't cost you any more to wear a garment for which you don't have to apologize than for one you do—the whole difference lies within the brain of the skilled maker. They cost you no more and the results are vastly different.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush out Kidneys—Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad. Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

STATE CAN HAVE FEDERAL AID

Government Cooperates in Protection of Forests Against Fire—Low

Cost Per Acre

$100,000 IS APPROPRIATED

Wine and Water Cannot be Mixed

Legally According to Secretary of Agriculture

(By United Press.)

Washington, Oct. 1.—The Federal government's cooperation with the states in the protection of forests against fire has met with such success that Congress has made $100,000 available for continuation of this work in the Agricultural Appropriation bill just passed.

The cooperation began in 1911 when Congress first recognized the duty of the government to aid in protecting the watersheds of navigable streams by enacting the Week's Law. The law not only provided for purchase by the government of forest lands in the East, needed for streams protection, but also authorized the Secretary of Agriculture to cooperate with the states to prevent fire on other forest lands located on the watersheds of navigable streams.

As a result, private owners of forest lands in many regions have been benefited by the establishment of a protective system of proved efficiency. During the fire season approximately 300 patrolmen are maintained in the field under this law. They guard an area of about 13,000,000 acres, for the most part mountainous and all located on important watersheds.

This area is protected at a very low cost per acre. A much larger area is protected in the same states employs and private agencies. All told expenditure from a state and private funds for this purpose are from three to five times as great as those from Federal funds.

To secure Federal aid a state must have provided by law a system of forest fire protection, and its expenditures must at least equal the government's. No state is allotted more than $10,000. The states which are now receiving aid are Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, West Virginia, Kentucky, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington, and Oregon. A specific agreement is made with each state.

The government is supplied with the state's plan of fire protection, including maps which show the areas to be protected, location of lookout stations, headquarters and routes of patrolmen, and other features necessary to understanding the fire control scheme. The state forester or similar officer is given an appointment in the Forest service, which authorizes him to employ Federal patrolmen. The Federal expenditures are for the salaries of these patrolmen.

Wine and water cannot be mixed—legally. Secretary of Agriculture Houston has just announced a decision which prohibits the use of the word "wine" on products made by the addition of water to the juice, pomace or pulp of grapes. Wine must have an old-fashioned "kick" in it, under the secretary's ruling.

Under former decisions certain classes of wine manufacturers were permitted to add water and sugar to the pomace or pulp of grapes from which the juice had been partially expressed, and then, after allowing the mixture to ferment, to call the mixture "pomace wine." This is no longer permissible unless the manufacturer wants to label their product "imitation wine."

The new decision, however, permits correction of natural defects in grape musts and wine due to climatic or seasonal conditions by certain additions.

The need of shortening the growing season of cotton has been recognized as the best means for securing protection against injury from the boll weevil, and the Department of Agriculture, according to a bulletin in has just issued, is recommending a system of cotton culture which aims to secure the production of more cotton in a shorter period of time.

The system is especially important, the bulletin declares, in regions where the crop is limited by drouth or by short seasons, as in the northern districts, and should help to remedy the backward state of what has been considered in the past a "sure-crop" industry.

CONTINUES FIGHT TO BE REINSTATED

Mrs. Bridget Peixette, a Mother. Dismissed as School Teacher For "Neglect of Duty."

ARE OTHER CASES LIKE HERS

(By United Press.)

New York, Oct. 1.—Although the highest court in the state ruled against her, Mrs. Bridget Peixette today laid down plans to continue her fight for the right of women of New York to become mothers, though they aid their husbands in gaining a livelihood by serving as school teachers.

Mrs. Peixette was dismissed for "neglect of duty" because of her absence while giving birth to her baby. She carried her fight for reinstatement to the court of appeals, and there it was held that the board of education was not bound to reinstate the mother in her place as a teacher. Mrs. Peixette now plans to appeal to Dr. John H. Finley, state commissioner of education. If she finally loses in her fight, fifty other teachers of the elementary schools of the city face dismissal. With the court of appeals ruling to back them up, the board of education is expected to take immediate action against others.

BATTLE STARTS OVER IN ALSACE

German War Office Says French, Heavily Reinforced, Attempt to Break Through the Lines.

BUT ARE ALWAYS REPULSED

Enemy Continue Efforts to Prevent Complete Investment of Verdun-Toul Line of Forts.

(By United Press.) Berlin, Oct. 1.—(Via The Hague)—The war office says the general situation continues with little change, the fighting developing into a series of independent engagements in which neither side has so far been able to gain a distinct advantage. The official report as made public today devotes considerable attention to the fighting in Alsace-Lorraine, where, it is stated, the battle begun on Monday continues. The French, it is stated, have been heavily reinforced and are attempting to break through the German lines in the vicinity of Mulhausen and to carry the various passes through the Vosges. "In every instance" says the re-

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. P. W. LANSENG, Route No. 1, Florence, South Dakota.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

port, "our troops have beaten back the attacks of the enemy, inflicting heavy losses. The enemy, assisted by the garrisons of the Verdun-Toul line of forts, continue their efforts to prevent the complete investment of these positions but we are holding our line intact at every point in this territory. The French are being heavily reinforced on our extreme left center, but we have been able to hold them in check by a series of assaults in which we have gained some ground.

"The general fighting on our right continues, the French resuming their assaults at various points. The fighting is in progress with great severity, but there has been no decisive gain by either side in this section. Meanwhile the forts of Antwerp are being bombarded at long range with success. The garrison attempted several sorties, but in every instance has been driven back with heavy losses. The Belgians have opened the dykes and have flooded the lowlands around the city and naturally this retards our operations somewhat.

"In the eastern theatre of war our troops are continuing their advance into Russian Poland. The war office at Vienna reports that the Austrians are successfully carrying on their campaign both in Galicia and in Serbia."

AUSTRIA AGREES TO PAY INDEMNITY

Will Reimburse Italy For Families of Fishermen Who Lost Lives From Striking Mine.

NO ANSWER TO DEMAND MADE

(By United Press.) Rome, Oct. 1.—Reports current in official circles today declared that Austria, in an effort to prevent Italy declaring war, has agreed to pay an indemnity to the Italian government for families of the fishermen whose lives were lost when their boats were destroyed by striking floating mines in the Adriatic. The amount of this indemnity may be fixed by Italy. It is also stated that there is no confirmation of the reports current yesterday that an Italian torpedo boat was sunk by a floating mine. Whether Austria has agreed to stop planting mines is not yet known here.

Meanwhile the agitation to have Italy enter the war on the side of the allies continues.

The government is being urged by leading members of all political parties to declare war on Austria at once. Up to the present, however, despite several councils, there has been no change in the Italian attitude of positive neutrality.

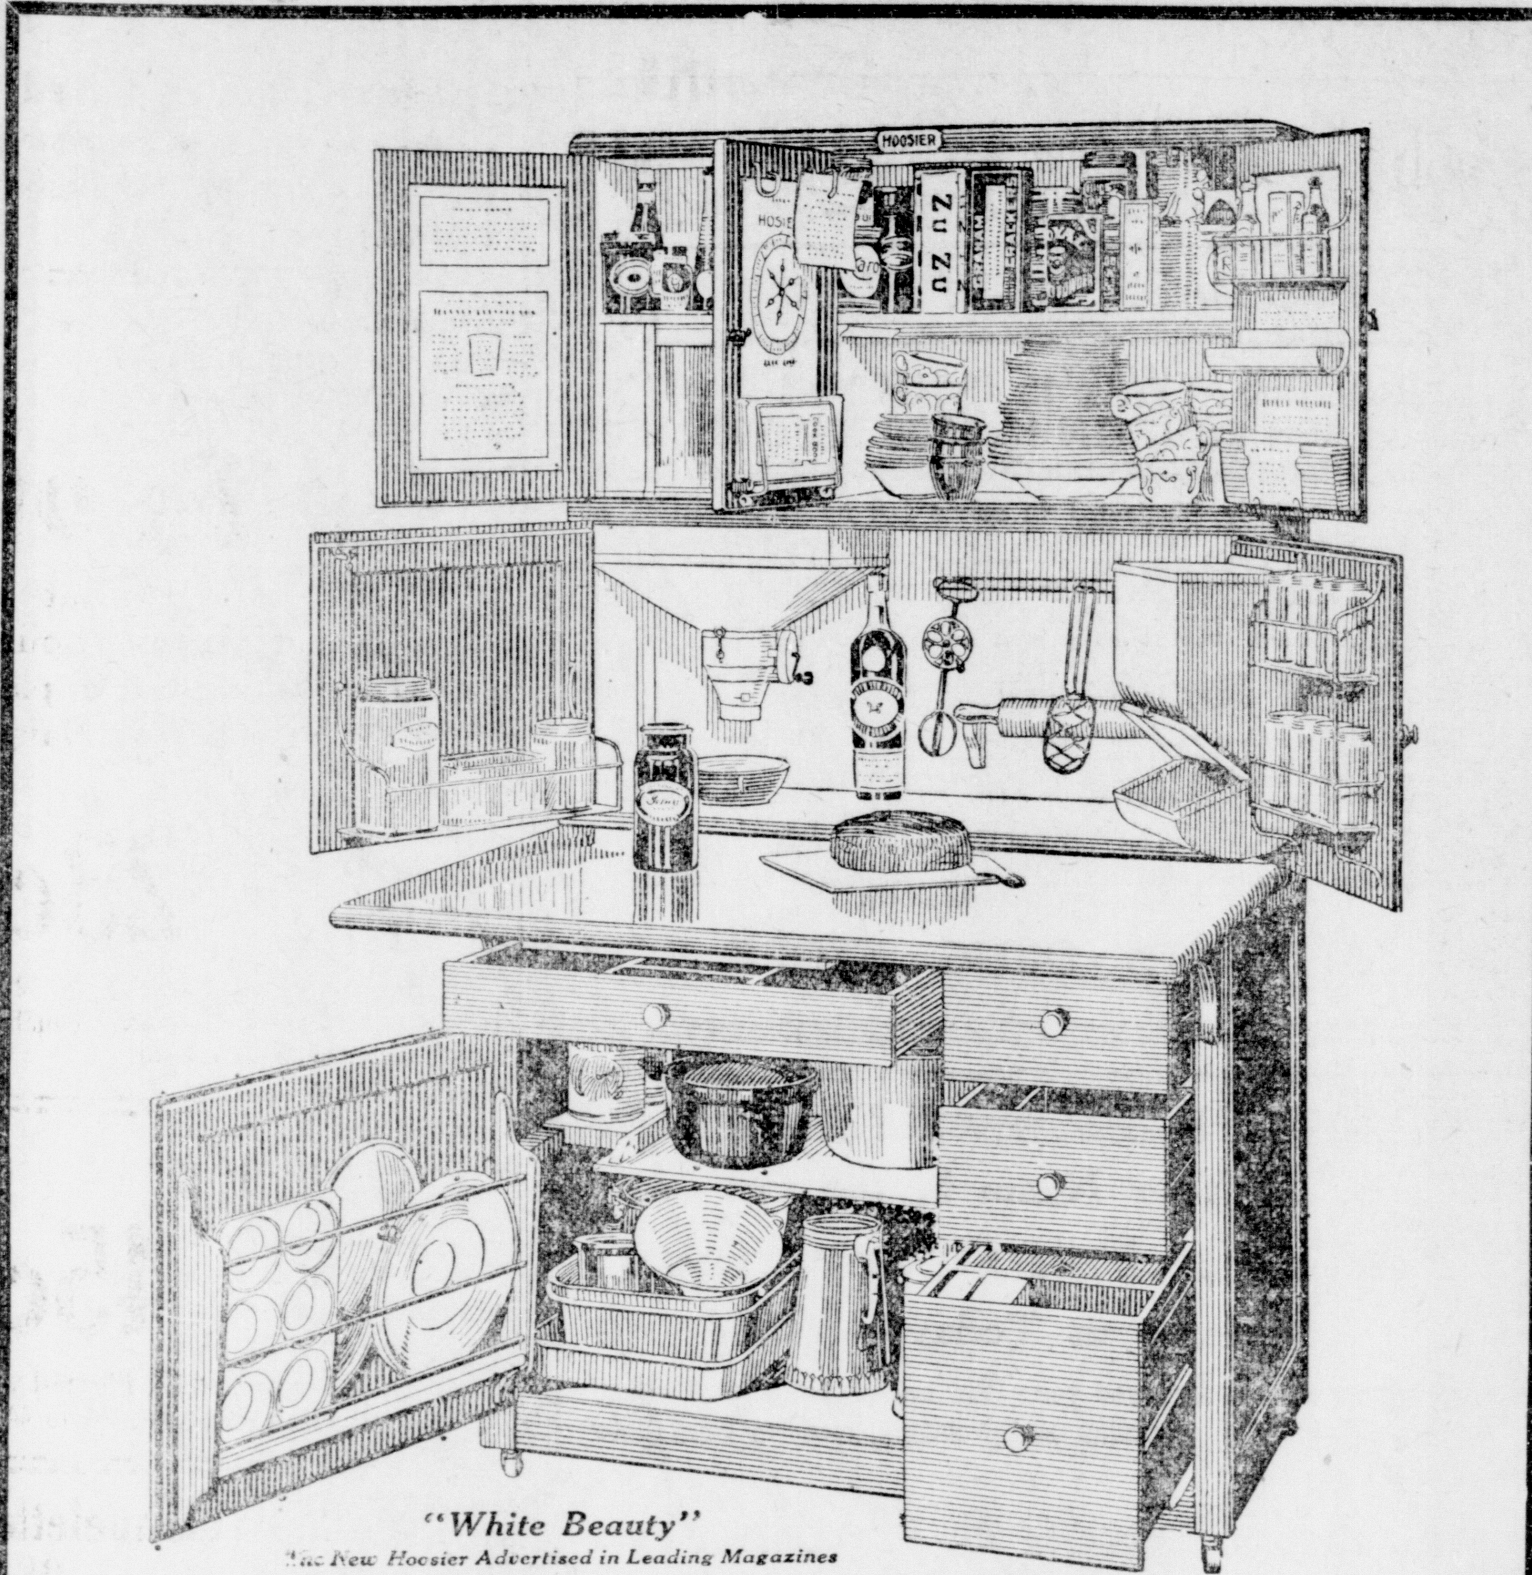

TO TREAT EACH CASE OF SEIZURE ALONE

This is Understood to be Policy of United States Regarding Conditional Contraband

SHIPMENT OF COPPER SEIZED

(By United Press.) Washington, Oct. 1.—Although official announcement was withheld today of this government's attitude regarding Great Britain's notification that "conditional" contraband of war commodities destined to her enemies are subject to seizure, it was understood that each case of seizure will be treated as a separate and distinct problem for consideration. Admiralty courts will probably be the tribunal of adjustment following diplomatic exchanges.

The first case now before the department was the seizure of American copper consigned to Germany. Great Britain seized it, contending it was designed for use in manufacturing torpedoes and was, therefore, "conditional contraband." It is also announced that the American ship-let-up in the fighting at the two ends of the waving battle line since Friday. At all times the allies have been on the offensive. Even when forced back by sheer weight of numbers, they have always returned to the assault and converted temporary defeat into permanent victory. At half a dozen points on the left there are towns which have changed hands as many as four times in twenty four hours. But today it is definitely stated that in the territory north of the Somme and west of the Oise, the allies are today holding the advanced positions that were originally occupied by the Germans when the present battle began.

CLAIMED NOW AS FRENCH VICTORY

The German right, military headquarters here today declared, has been shortened materially. While no details of the line are given, it is believed that the Germans are now battling desperately to maintain their holds on the railroad lines running into Belgium. They are constantly being subjected to fresh pressure as additional fresh troops are being hurled into line. A similar situation exists on the extreme French right. Military experts here predict the end of the present battle about Sunday or Monday with complete success to the allies, in that the Germans must retreat.

No morning official statement was issued today. Military headquarters here contented itself with a characterization of the general situation as "improving everywhere." Attention was called, however, to the increasing number of prisoners reported taken. The number for Tuesday, the latest figures obtainable, said to be four times as many as were taken in the severe fighting of Saturday and Sunday. Because of this it is only in real offensive operations that many prisoners can be taken.

All of the prisoners that have passed through here are utterly exhausted. Their clothing is ragged and in many cases the men are nearly barefooted.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ANSWERS 7 CALLS

Two Alarms During Month of September Fire and Only Two Fires Cause Very Heavy Loss.

15 MARRIAGE LICENSES

During the month of September the fire department answered seven alarms, but the property loss was comparatively small. Two of the alarms were false. The greater loss was sustained by Allen Daniels. His house, it will be remembered, was found on fire two nights in succession and was believed to have been the work of an incendiary. The total loss is given at $1,300 for the two fires.

The records in the clerk's office show that a total of fifteen marriage licenses were issued during the month just past. In this line September held its own with the same month in other years. Last year the number of marriage licenses issued was exactly the same as this year.

FANS DO NOT TAKE TO ANNOUNCEMENT

But Management Does Not Seem to Care and Arcadians Will Play at Connersville.

IS LITTLE INTEREST HERE

The fans are not taking very kindly to the announcement that Rushville would play at Connersville Sunday and from all indications a small crowd will accompany the team on this trip. The fans know that it is Connersville's time to play here but the management does not seem to care much about the fans. In fact the fans have not gotten over the game of last Sunday and it is probably because of this that the team will play away from home.

The team is said to have lost money here last Sunday, but rather than close the park and call it quits for the season the team insists on holding on and the Connersville game is the result. Little or no interest is being shown in the contest because of the game being played in Connersville. This will make the fourth time Rushville has journeyed there this season and the fans cannot see it that way. Rumor has it that Geo. Murphy will move his part of the grand stand out to the farm.

SHIPPING LAW IN EFFECT

"Movies" Must be Sent in Spark-Proof Boxes

(By United Press.)

Washington, Oct. 1.—New shipping safety regulations for moving picture films went into effect today. Under orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission beginning today, "movie" films cannot be shipped except tightly closed, metal cases enclosed in a strong, spark-proof wooden box, or in spark-proof boxes made of sheet iron. Under former laws regulations films could be shipped in fiber-board cases. The new films regulations are part of those governing shipment of explosives and other dangerous articles.

DEFENSE OF TAYLOR ROBERTS IS JOLTED

State Springs Surprise in Trial of Charlottesville Man by Evidence of Woman Detective.

THROUGH DEFENSE'S FRIEND

Taylor Roberts, a resident of Charlottesville, is on trial in the Madison county circuit court on a charge of arson in connection with the burning of a three-room cottage at Alexandria, Ind., Deputy fire marshals arrested him January 29, when, it is alleged, he was in the act of applying a match to oil soaked refuse in the house. Roberts is about seventy years old.

The state handed the defense a heavy blow in the trial yesterday when Mrs. Marie Wright, whom the defense was depending upon as a material witness, was unexpectedly placed on the witness stand this afternoon and testified that for the last year she had been connected with the state fire marshal's office as a detective. So sure was Phil Neill, attorney for Roberts, that Mrs. Wright would testify for the defense that he is said yesterday to have lunched with his client and Mrs. Wright and to have gone over the case carefully with her. Adding to the surprise in the case were about forty letters purporting to have been written by Roberts while in the county jail to Mrs. Wright, who, he thought, was directing his affairs outside. In one letter the writer asked her to make love to a detective from the state fire marshal's office so as to compromise the official.
